

Join the Patient and Family Advisory Council.

Your feedback can transform the patient experience.

Patient and Family Advisory Councils (PFAC's) support the delivery of patient-centered care by establishing partnerships between patients and families and the administration of WMCHealth.

Joining the PFAC is an excellent opportunity for you if you are looking for ways to contribute to the greater good by helping to improve the quality of care.

